Agreement

I fully understand that all the course and study materials supplied to me by Edison Institute of Nutrition (EIN) are for my own personal use only. I agree not to share this confidential information with any other person, group, company, or organization. I agree not to reproduce or transmit the whole or any part of this course by any means whatever, electronic or mechanical, including photocopying or by any information storage and retrieval system.

I hereby fully understand and agree that acceptance by EIN is provisional and that I may be removed from any EIN program at any time, for failure to meet its standards, without recourse.

I agree that the timeframe for completion of the Introductory Program is within 1 year of start date. A $75.00 reactivation fee will apply for extension beyond the 1-year timeframe.

I agree to accept all financial conditions and agreements. A full refund of tuition fees, minus the $50.00 application fee, will apply if cancellation is received in writing within 10 days from the commencement of the program. Withdrawal after 10 days results in no tuition refund. All unused current edition texts and curriculum materials must be returned to EIN in new, resalable condition prior to refund. A 15% processing fee will apply, and the text/materials must be returned at the expense of the student. Authorization must be obtained before returning any course material.

Tax receipts will be issued for the current tax year based on work completed during the tax year.

I clearly understand that nutrition is a science of wellness whose sole purpose is to teach me how to build and maintain nutritional well-being, both for myself and my family. I also understand that the teachings or methods of nutrition are not for the purpose of diagnosing disease or for providing medical advice and should I engage in such behaviour, I do so entirely at my own risk and discretion. If medical care should be required, it is the recommendation of EIN and its authors and publishers that capable, qualified medical personnel be consulted.

EIN offers its published material and courses for informational purposes, and I specifically relieve EIN and its authors and publishers from any responsibility for the consequences of following any of the recommendations contained in material offered by EIN.

I understand that EIN's programs are not designed to meet any national, state, or local licensing or credentialing laws and that it is my responsibility to investigate this area thoroughly.

I release EIN and/or its authors, publishers, and instructors from any damages, claims or liabilities whatsoever, as a result of the information presented.

I hereby certify that all the above information presented by me is true and accurate.
